

CENTER FOR PROFESSIONAL STUDIES (CPS)

CPS 103 | Introduction to Smart Cities | 3 cr

Explores key concepts and ideas in the field of Smart Cities. Examines presuppositions about the principles that will inform interactions and life in future cities.

Prerequisites: None.

Offered: Fall.

Meets: Social & Behavioral Science: CPS

CPS 104 | The Stories That Do Not Get Told | 3 cr

Examines status inequity in the United States. Emphasizes building critical skills, considering historical and socio-economic contexts, questioning assumptions, identifying inconsistencies, asking questions, modifying assertions and formulating responses.

Prerequisites: None.

Offered: Fall, Spring.

Meets: Social & Behavioral Science: CPS

CPS 107 | Introduction to Esports | 1 cr

Provides a general overview of esports including the history of esports development, leagues, games, etiquette, and the health related components of esports such as injuries.

Prerequisites: None.

Offered: Fall.