

UNIX SYSTEM ADMINISTRATION CERTIFICATE

College: College of Business, Economics, and Computing

The computer science department offers a certificate in UNIX system administration that provides background and experience for students interested in careers in system administration.

All certificates are available to undergraduate students only (not to graduate students).

Requirements for the UNIX System Administration Certificate

This certificate consists of the following courses:

Code	Title	Credits
Required Course Options
Select one of the following:		5-6
CSCI 241	Computer Science I
MIS 221 & MIS 322	Business Programming I - Visual Basic and Business Programming II - C#
Required Courses
CSCI 274	UNIX Concepts and Tools	1
CSCI 275	UNIX Scripting	1
CSCI 435	UNIX System Administration	3
Total Credits		10-11