Department website (<https://www.uwp.edu/learn/programs/theatreartsminor.cfm>)

College: College of Arts & Humanities

The basic objective of the theatre arts minor is to provide a foundation for further study, vocational or avocational, for all interested students.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Serve as an artistic, educational, and cultural forum that utilizes the theatrical arts as a means of exploring, considering, and discussing various diverse aspects of our culture, society, and world;
2. Offer students a comprehensive liberal arts degree in theatre arts, in addition to providing practical theatre training concentrations in the areas of acting, design and technology, and direction and management, further preparing students to be successful in their professional, civic, and personal lives;
3. Establish a collaborative "company-based" training system that provides a select number of exceptional theatre students the best possible foundational training for careers in the professional theatre or related professions;
4. Utilize and integrate new technology, methodologies, and techniques creatively and effectively into theatre courses, programs, and productions;
5. Actively utilize professionally trained staff members, guest artists, and partnerships with regional professional theatres and artists to further expand and enhance our educational programming and production opportunities;
6. Attract and retain a diverse population of students, staff, faculty, and audiences as we present theatrical programming and presentations that reflect the full diversity of our community and world;
7. Enhance our students' and community's understanding and appreciation of the multifaceted, diverse theatrical art form by developing and presenting a broad range of accessible, high-quality academic and artistic opportunities;
8. Remain viable, productive, and healthy through the effective and reasonable management of our human and financial resources and facilities.
